

Armed Forces

Robert A. Smith, machinist's mate third class, USN, of 20425 Raymond St., David S. Edwards, interior communications electrician second class, USN, son of Mrs. Grace M. Edwards of 16708 Yukon Ave., and Richard T. Finch, aviation boatswain's mate airman, USN, of 3236 W. 187th St., appeared in the filming of a television show with actor Ernest Borgnine Oct. 3, while serving aboard the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Kearsarge operating out of Long Beach, Calif.

The film personality narrated the program which is scheduled for release in early 1961 in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of Naval Aviation.

Pvt. Clifford E. Griffith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira I. Griffith, 1144 W. 220th St., Torrance, Calif., completed the 14-week artillery vehicle maintenance course Oct. 28 at The Artillery and Missile School, Fort Sill, Okla.

Griffith received training in the maintenance of tracked vehicles and self-propelled artillery weapons.

He entered the Army last May and completed basic training at Fort Ord.

The 19-year-old soldier attended Narbonne High School. Army Specialist Four Stanley R. Todd, 20, was graduated from the Fort Carson Colo. Non-Commissioned Officer Academy Oct. 28.

He received four weeks of training in various military subjects with emphasis on leadership and combat tactics. The purpose of the academy is to broaden the soldier's professional knowledge and to instill him with the self-confidence and sense of responsibility required of a capable leader.

Specialist Todd, a 1958 graduate of Narbonne High School in Harbor City, entered the Army in February 1959 and completed basic training at Fort Ord.

His father, Edwin S. Todd, lives at 2063 W. 264th St. Lomita.

William L. Schlemmer of 22632 Lupine Drive graduated from recruit training Oct. 27 at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

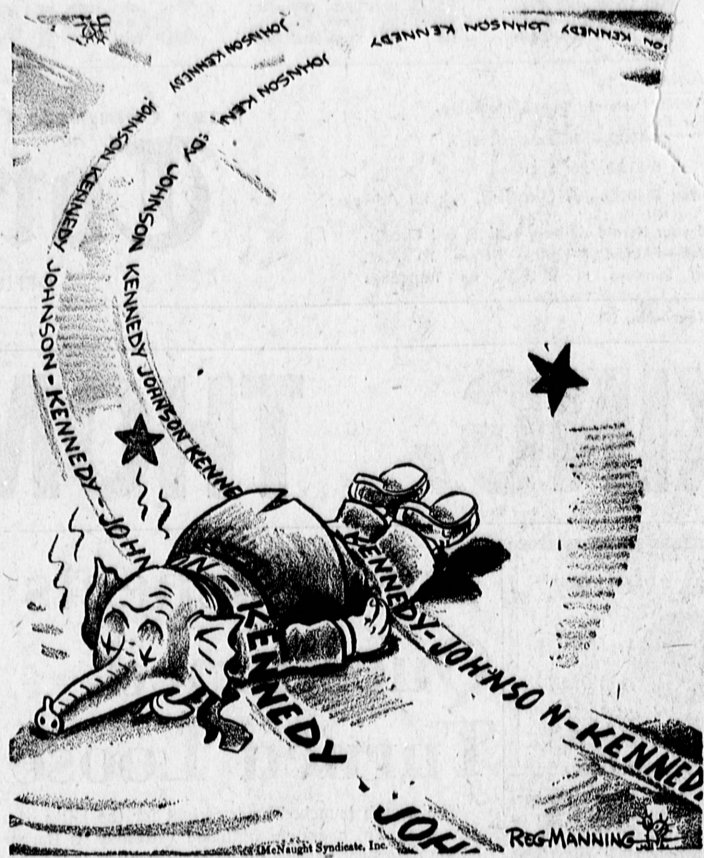

In nine weeks of instruction, the "raw recruit" is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

William D. Spidle, radioman seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Spidle of 153 W. Carson St. is serving aboard the escort destroyer USS Carpenter operating with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

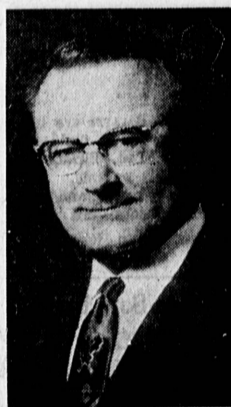

The ship departed Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, Oct. 17, and will operate as part of an anti-submarine hunter-killer group and participate in amphibious and air defense exercises.

The ship is scheduled to visit Hong Kong, Okinawa, Taiwan, the Philippines and Japan.

Election Rundown

Group Meets To Discuss Cancer Fight

RECEIVES HONOR ... City Manager George W. Stevens, who represents Torrance on the board of directors of the Metropolitan Water District, has been presented with a 10-year pin by MWD as a 10-year member of the board. He is a member of the land committee and the legal and claims committee of the board. He has been city manager of Torrance since 1948.

A group of prominent South Bay residents met recently to discuss the question "How Can I Help Fight Cancer?"

The important meeting was hosted by Miss Irmadell Rous, assistant principal of girls at Redondo Beach High School and Redondo Beach Chairman of the education program of the American Cancer Society. Miss Rous was nominated the Woman of the Year in 1959 by the citizens of Redondo Beach.

The importance to the answer of the question was discussed thoroughly at the educational committee meeting by Miss Terry KJosterman, District 8 field representative of the American Cancer Society.

Miss KJosterman was introduced to the comm by Mrs. James Robert Black of Hermosa Beach.

RICHARD J. Lescow, M.D., of Torrance, volunteer education Chairman of District 8 for the American Cancer Society discussed the value of promoting cancer education within the local service clubs and other organizations.

The Educational Committee

lunched at the Redondo Beach High School Cafeteria with the following persons in attendance: Dr. W. Earl Brown, district superintendent of the South Bay Union High School and honorary chairman of the educational committee; Miss Marjorie Crandall, assistant principal of Aviation High School; Mrs. Joseph C. Ennis, president of the Soroptimist Club of Palos Verdes-Redondo Beach; Mrs. Eric Lindgren, Diana's representative; Mrs. J. Russell Shea, American Cancer Society residential crusade chairman for district 8; the Rev. Richard I. S. Parker, St. Cross Episcopal Church of Hermosa Beach; Lloyd Waller, principle of Mira Costa High School, and Logan Cotton, past governor of the KJiwanis.

Thanksgiving Day was selected as the final day of National Retarded Children's Week in appreciation of the progress being made in opportunities for the mentally retarded to lead useful, satisfying lives.
